STUDENT DISCIPLINE

DISCIPLINE MATRIX

The following matrix specifies the types of conduct that will result in disciplinary action. In each instance, a range of discipline is possible. References to "Behaviors Which May Result in Student Suspension/Expulsion" refer to Catalina Foothills School District Policy JKD-Student Suspension.

Discipline in excess of the maximum may be recommended and imposed (1) in the case of multiple rule violations arising out of the same event or series of events, or (2) when a student has repeatedly violated one or more of these rules, or (3) when the student's conduct is particularly serious. Discipline less than the minimum may be recommended and imposed in appropriate circumstances. Beginning in the fourth (4th) quarter, students subject to discipline risk loss of participation in promotion, graduation, and related activities.

The following is not a checklist of all discipline that must be imposed. Administrators have broad discretion in disciplining a student and may increase the minimum or decrease the maximum based on circumstances.
